

THE WORKS OF HUBERT H. BANCROFT.

AGENT'S REPORT ON PERSONS INTERVIEWED.

THE HISTORY COMPANY, Publishers,

San Francisco, Cal

This report should give the Department a perfect knowledge of the subscriber's financial responsibility, standing occupation, address, binding, and (if any) lettering and presentation page. If the person solicited does not subscribe the report should be just as full as though he did, in order that the Department, if it is deemed expedient, may correspond with him intelligently in a special and personal manner, for the purpose of securing his order in the future.
